Camping

Spring Camporee 2007

By Cameron Weeks

At Camp I had a terrible time! It was raining when I got there. I had to wait 10 minutes for my Dad to park and walk back. When we were putting the tents up, I remembered that I forgot my socks. My Dad thought that I would catch hypothermia, so I left

Editors note* This is Cameron's first article for the Newsletter and will receive a magnesium fire starter for his efforts.

Importance of making a camp List.....

A camp supplies list may seem like an obvious thing. Surely you would not forget your knife & fork or a cup to drink from. How do those gremlins make off with those things you meant to bring. A sweatshirt for that cool evening. A dry pair of socks to replace the ones that got wet in the creek or spare batteries for your flashlight. Those batteries were good last year!
